It's good to be part of a show like Bharat Diamond Week, which is promoting India as a diamond manufacturing hub to the world. We are world leaders in cut and polishing diamonds and a show like this is an ideal platform to exhibit our manufacturing expertise. The show's format of 'one company, one booth' allows entire focus on the product. I am sure this show will certainly grow bigger in future. We as an industry need to support and promote shows like Bharat Diamond Week.
